Stellar Workshop for Students held at Swan Lake

Plymouth, IN (August 27, 2019) – Marshall County Crossroads Stellar Sub-Committee on Education and Skills Training is proud to be hosting 90 students from area schools at Swan Lake for a Student Stellar Workshop. The workshop, beginning at 10 a.m. this morning, will seek input from the students on the Quality of Life initiatives part of the Stellar Application.

Marshall County Students from Argos, Culver, Grace Baptist, Plymouth, Triton and Bremen will be meeting with several members of the Stellar Committee to gain the students perspective. MCEDC and the Stellar Committee are eager to get input from this younger demographic. Students will be treated to pizza for lunch while they attend the workshop.

The students will rotate around the room collaborating on the following Quality of Life ideas/concepts:

- 1) Diversity and Inclusion
- 2) Leadership
- 3) Education and Job Preparation
- 4) Arts and Culture
- 5) Place
- 6) Health and Wellness, Parks and Networks

Marshall County Crossroads is a finalist for the Stellar Communities Program again this year after being selected as a finalist last year. The Stellar Communities Program works with self-selected regions on their vision for community and economic development, promotes local and regional partnerships and assists in implementing innovative solutions to challenges facing Indiana's rural communities.
